Location

West Hampstead is an affluent and fashionable residential district in the London Borough of Camden boarded by Hampstead, Kilburn, and Swiss Cottage. The suburb is approximately 4 miles north of Central London.

An extremely desirable area to live, West Hampstead and the wider locality, is known for its artistic, musical, and literary associations. Consequently, the area has a vibrant neighbourhood feel and is littered with an extensive array of local shops, restaurants and pubs.

Close to West Hampstead is Hampstead Heath, London's largest ancient parkland covering 320 hectares. The Heath is rambling and hilly, embracing ponds, recent and ancient woodlands, a lido, playgrounds, and a training track. The Park also adjoins Kenwood House, a former stately home, and Parliament Hill, which offers a famous and legally protected view of the London skyline. It is estimated that Hampstead Heath attracts more than 7 million visitors each year.

Situation

The Alliance occupies a prominent corner position on the southern side of Mill Lane, a busy residential road just off West End Lane. West End Lane is the main throughfare in West Hampstead and features the majority of the areas retail, hospitality and leisure offerings.

West Hampstead underground station (0.6 miles) and West Hampstead Thameslink station (0.5 miles) are located close to the subject property. The underground, served by the Jubilee Line, provides direct access to Baker Street, Bond Street and Canary Wharf, while Thameslink is a 24-hour 115 main-line route running from Bedford to Brighton via Central London. Also West Hampstead overground station - a circular route around London - serving routes east to Stratford and West to Clapham Junction / Richmond. In addition, the area is served by the A41 (Finchley Road), the A5 (Shoot-Up Hill) and the B510 (West End Lane).

Description

40 - 42 Mill Lane comprises a prominent corner public house arranged over ground and basement floors, totalling 5,178 sq ft.
