LOCATION OVERVIEW & ACCESSIBILITY

Mina house is located in Paddington a central London Zone 1 destination, in the London Borough of Westminster. Paddington's character is most defined by its heritage as the gateway to London; historically through its extensive canal network at Paddington Basin and later on, with the arrival of the steam train, as the terminus for Isambard Kingdom Brunel's Great Western Railway.

In recent years, Paddington has been subject to a period of regeneration, driven by numerous large scale developments that have been led by The Paddington Partnership. The once disused canal has been given a new lease of life linking with Little Venice to the north. The scheme has been the catalyst for further development evident in Paddington today.

The Paddington Cube development, as a part of the wider Paddington Square development, will add an additional 360,000 sq ft of office space to the Paddington area. The Paddington Square scheme comprising retail, office, public realm and transport infrastructure improvements will instil a new lease of life into the area. The scheme is set to introduce 4,500 new jobs to the area as well injecting £350m per annum to the local economy.

Mina House Hotel is a short walk away from Bayswater and Queensway. Alongside all of the development occurring in Paddington, Bayswater is also undergoing extensive redevelopment. Much of Queensway, including Whiteleys Shopping Centre, has recently been purchased by an overseas investment partnership, with the aim of redeveloping and repositioning the area. Whiteleys has undergone a reported £1 billion pound redevelopment, which is due to and is set to further reinvigorate the Bayswater area through delivering an enhanced retail experience along with residential and leisure facilities.

Mina House Hotel is within close proximity to some of the UK's leading attractions. A walk south through Hyde Park takes tourists to four of the UK's top 20 attractions; the Natural History Museum, the Victoria and Albert Museum, the Science Museum and Royal Albert Hall. Kensington Palace, the official residence of The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge is also nearby.
